RE: MUR 5936

Dear Ms. DeJarnett-Miller:

I am writing to respond to the above mentioned inquiry. I am no longer the President and owner of Ontime Fundraiser Inc. It has been sold to a different entity.

As it relates to the period that Ontime Fundraiser was administratively dissolved, that was due to the previous accountant who failed to make the renewal payment at the time. Ontime Fundraiser was at that time for sale and apparently the payment was over looked. It had been corrected.

As it relates to Mr. Derek Newton's involvement, Mr. Newton did not have any control of the company nor did he have any decision making authority. Mr. Newton has not been paid from Ontime Fundraiser, nor has he ever been compensated for any work, consultation or received any fees as it relates to the Terri Pac account. In fact, Mr. Newton has never received any compensation from Ontime Fundraiser Inc., since its inception in 2001.

Ontime Fundraiser had not made any profit and the fees associated with Ontime Fundraiser as it relates to the Terri Pac account, it barely covered the operating cost for that particular account.

I hope this address the concerns of the FEC as well as the person/entity that issued the concern.

Sincerely,

Edgar M. Duarte
